

Family Grace

Alone in the mansion,

five crammed in together.

Grace for yourself,

grace for your family.

Forgive and forget when no one rings,

when no one listens.

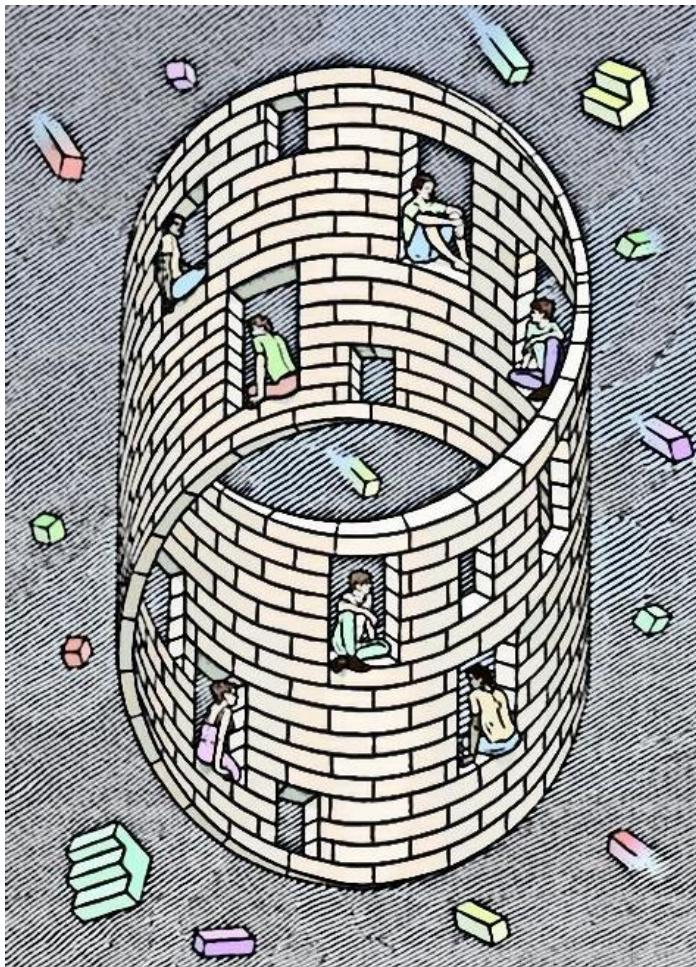

When there are no loo rolls,

when there is no fresh food.

Give grace to all those around you,

as you have been given abundant grace.

M. Green, March '20

Note: part of the lent series, the image is from the web. The end of the first very strange week. Give each other grace, we all need it, isolated each to our own room. The world bending into unbelievable shapes before our eyes. And this is only the beginning.